

BENEFITS OF A COHORT- BASED

LEARNING PLATFORM

Cohort-based learning is group-based learning that includes experiential practice, application, feedback, expertise, and structured peer-to-peer learning. Here are some key benefits of using a cohort-based learning platform:

DEVELOPS ACCOUNTABILITY

Peers can motivate each other to stay on track, reinforce each other's learning, and incentivize them to complete projects on time

OFFERS FLEXIBILITY

An online, cohort-based learning platform enables hybrid learning that can take place within the flow of work

REINFORCES LEARNING

Learning in a cohort is proven to be more impactful, leading to greater retention of information and more learner satisfaction

RESULTS IN IMPROVED OUTCOMES

Learners stay engaged and committed to the learning process, leading to higher completion rates and better business outcomes

BUILDS COLLABORATION

Learners have opportunities to cooperate on assignments and practice projects, developing critical relational and teamwork capabilities

ENCOURAGES CONNECTION

Cohort-based learning enables community team building, even across geographies, connecting learners to their teams and organizations

BOOSTS MEANINGFUL INTERACTIONS

Provides a safe environment for simulations/role play and difficult conversations in the context of your organization and learners' roles

NovoEd